Donations continue for renovation

Donations continue to be sent in to the effort to restore Carbondale City Hall according to members of the restoration group.

While the donations have already paid for the reapir of the clock and materials to erect a protective plastic and wooden frame for it, several other projects have been carried out by committee members and other volunteers, including:

- New flooring installed around the stairs on the fourth and fifth level of the clock tower;
- Progress on the removal of paint from the inside of the clock faces;
- Boarding up broken windows in the clock tower to prevent pigeons from entering the building;
- Removal of approximately seven tons of pigeon manure from the upper clock tower levels;
- The incorporation of the Committee to Restore Carbondale City Hall, Inc.;
- The endorsement of the restoration effort by the Carbondale Area Chamber of Commerce;
- Formulating plans to present a series of educational and historical activities in connection with the Carbondale Pioneer Days festival in the later part of August.

A recent list of contributors to the restoration fund includes: Elizabeth Walsh, Paul J. McGovern & Associates, Inc., Wallis Electric, Santo and Mary Ann Cerminaro, Carbondale Women's Club, Andrew's Restaurant, Madeline Cerra, Mildred Scott, Mary C. Enright, Bernard Brown, Helen Munley, Gloria Wilson, Marie A. Hornbeck, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kaczmarcik, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Pascoe and Mrs. Mary Mulholland.
